

VISIT
PATERSON'S
HUNTOON & VAN RENSALIER
UNDERGROUND
RAILROAD HISTORIC SITE
WEBSITE

WWW.PATERSONNJ.GOV/UGRR

The Huntoon and Van Rensalier Underground Railroad Historic Site at 125 Broadway is dedicated to honoring the stories and experiences of those who passed through Paterson on their journey to freedom, and of those who helped them. Visit the website to learn about the brave men and women in Paterson who stood up for the abolition of slavery. This website gives unique insight into Paterson's role in the Underground Railroad and the Network to Freedom designation.

Paterson

Great Falls • Great Food • Great Future

SPONSORED BY THE CITY OF PATERSON HISTORIC PRESERVATION COMMISSION & CITY OF PATERSON

This project is funded by the City of Paterson and the Passaic County Cultural and Heritage Council through a County History Partnership Program grant from the New Jersey Historical Commission, a division of the Department of State.